GARDEN OF DESTINY

FEAT. MASSY & TRIPLE

Its all about the youth all bout the faith we wanna give to them how could them grow in society which gansterize us hide the truth and destroy places where we living no future them leaving a long time me walk deh pon my line blaming on my own sins forgiving my own crimes but it's alright because the signs come realest and everyday a fi sharpen my six sense how could we climb up the mountain and stand well alive without a reason plant a tree ina your garden then it a go feed you next season something tougher than the rock a never crumble make your feet follow the line in the jungle that's why the fool them a go fall down and stumble never realize that truth whispers to the humble

Oh and your rumble coulda sound and erase any trouble affi shine like the sun from every angle every single man is a temple oh that is simple I know you member the cycle god is a thing you shoulda wonder let him blow up your embers

Long time, they pushed us one side and if we ever push it would've caused a landslide enough of we a die and nuff a dem a enjoy enough a dem a fly and nuff a we a standby not everything your money can buy because no matter how you budget and try you can't touch the most high have to build a bridge and reconnect your soul child oh oh old time before the days of the pyramids and the Sphinx and the pharaohs energies in a celestial theatre and the producer is the ultimate creator remember youth that your soul is ancient and not one day spent can know that patience the time is now the road waiting for you and countless of souls awaken

Stuck between a rock and a hard place while sandwiched in a cave but yet still I manage to amaze in this planet of the apes where monkeys go bananas just to grab a couple grapes see the people need an answer not this cancer to the grave with your organ of pain playing The Phantom in the Cape from the heart of the beast he's wreaking havoc on the stage feel the fire from his clavicle and vain watch it travel through the brain it's spilling through his teeth, I say this animals insane but maybe I'm the same I'm a joker trying to find a Harley Quinn nice guys never finish last but they hardly win in this city formed with sin Sin City get your heart and diamonds and begin cause these royals trying to flush us and they're smiling with a grin trickle down economics for you and all of your kin you can check the bubonics the sores will form on your skin before the morning begins

Taking root in the fire our praises go higher let it be guided by the smoke and never disturb our prayer music is an harmony liberate humanity of the wicked intention that the people use to give fly over your poverty freedom is for you and me around this fire in the night we are sending our thanks and praises burning for a change, praying for the people down there all we want is a better life all we need to stay alive like the first man said let us make a better choice away from your sacrifices

HOLD ON STEADY

Hold on steady, nah let it be dreader than dread with truth in your life you will never reverse
